New NCFE Accredited PARS Playwork Qualification!

Playwork practitioners working in any setting around the world can now gain recognition for their PARS playwork practice with our NCFE accredited qualification at Level 4.

Our popular PARS Online Masterclass (POM) has already been delivered in Australia, China, UK, USA and The Netherlands. Now accredited by NCFE as a Customised Qualification, it is called PARS Playwork Practice (Level 4).

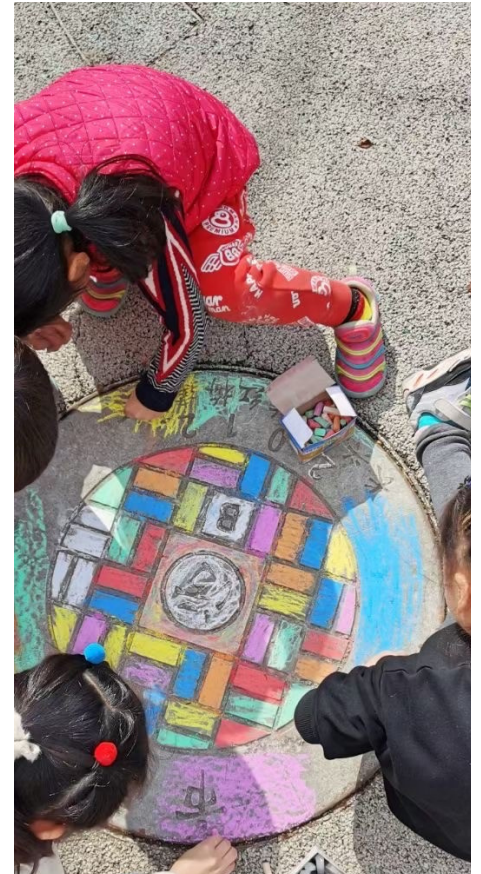

This means that PARS practitioners can now undertake PARS training and complete assessments which demonstrate their PARS playwork practice knowledge and skills. Successful candidates receive a certificate from NCFE which they can use as evidence of their qualification.

Our new PARS Playwork Practice Level 4 programmes are available from September 2021. Sign up to our mailing list to be kept up to date with our new NCFE accredited courses!
